

Curriculum Vitae

David H. Richter

Education

2007-2011 Ph.D. Mechanical Engineering, Stanford University
2006-2007 M.S. Mechanical Engineering, Stanford University
2002-2006 B. S. Mechanical Engineering, University of Massachusetts, Amherst

Appointments/Positions

2013-present Assistant Professor, Department of Civil & Environmental Engineering and Earth Sciences, University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, IN 2014-present Concurrent Assistant Professor, Department of Aerospace and Mechanical Engineering, University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, IN 2011-2013 Advanced Study Program Postdoctoral Fellow, National Center for Atmospheric Research, Boulder, CO
2006-2011 Research Assistant, Mechanical Engineering Department, Stanford University, Stanford, CA
2005-2006 Undergraduate Research Assistant, Mechanical Engineering Department, University of Massachusetts, Amherst, MA
2005 Summer Engineering Intern, National Center for Atmospheric Research, Boulder, CO

Awards and Memberships

Chair, AMS Air-Sea Interaction Committee	2017-2020
Office of Naval Research Young Investigator Program Awardee	2016-2019
Elected CEEES Faculty Commencement Speaker	2015
Advanced Study Program Postdoctoral Fellowship	2011-2013
Stanford Graduate Fellowship	2008-2011
School of Engineering Graduate Fellowship, Stanford University	2006-2007
Graduated Cum Laude from University of Massachusetts	2006
Member, American Physical Society	2007-present
Member, American Geophysical Union	2012-present
Member, American Meteorological Society	2013-present

Invited Presentations

1. "Coupling of droplets and turbulence: numerical techniques and insights", presented at the International Workshop on Cloud Dynamics, Microphysics, and Small-Scale Simulation, Indian Institute of Tropical Meteorology, Pune, India, August 14, 2018
2. "Droplets and dust in atmospheric turbulence: Insight from numerical simulations", presented at the University of Waterloo Applied Mathematics seminar series, Waterloo, ON, Canada, October 19, 2017
3. "Understanding multiphase turbulence in the environment using numerical simulations", presented at the University of Notre Dame Applied and Computational Mathematics and Statistics seminar series on statistics, Notre Dame, IN, October 10, 2017
4. "Investigating the basic fluid mechanics of multiphase geophysical flows", presented at the University of Minnesota Mechanical Engineering Lecture Series, Minneapolis, MN, April 18, 2017
5. "Using DNS to investigate multiphase turbulence in the environment", presented at the Pennsylvania State University Fluid Dynamics Research Consortium Seminar Series, Penn State University, State College, November 10, 2016
6. "Using direct numerical simulations to investigate multiphase turbulence in the atmosphere", presented at the Mechanical Engineering Departmental Seminar, University of Texas at Dallas, September 30, 2016
7. "The turbulent atmospheric boundary layer", a lecture given to students at the California State University at Chico, Chico, CA, April 22, 2016
8. "Investigating the basic fluid mechanics of multiphase geophysical flows", presented at the Stanford University Fluid Dynamics Seminar Series, Stanford, CA, March 29, 2016
9. "How far does a dispersed phase influence turbulence?", presented as an invited speaker at the Fundamental Aspects of Geophysical Turbulence II Conference, National Center for Atmospheric Research, Boulder, CO, August 5, 2015
10. "Dispersed phase effects on wall-bounded turbulence and its upscale influence", presented at the University of Illinois Department of Mechanical Science and Engineering Fluid Dynamics Seminar, Urbana, IL, November 7, 2014
11. "A small-scale perspective on turbulent fluxes in the spray-laden marine boundary layer: Results from DNS", presented at the Pennsylvania State University Meteorology Colloquium, State College, PA, October 8, 2014
12. "A small-scale perspective of the spray-laden marine atmospheric boundary layer", Space and Atmospheric Physics (Dept. of Physics) research seminar, Imperial College London, London, UK, June 13, 2014
13. "Spray-modified fluxes in the marine atmospheric boundary layer", presented at Brookhaven National Labs, Upton, NY, December 23, 2013
14. "Turbulent transport at the spray-laden air-sea interface", seminar at the Naval Research Labs, Monterey, CA, May 21, 2013
15. "Turbulent transport in the spray-laden, high-wind marine boundary layer", Mechanical & Aerospace Engineering Departmental Seminar, University of Florida, Gainesville, FL, April 16, 2013

16. "Sea-spray and its effects on near-surface turbulence", invited lecture at the Multiphase Turbulent Flows in the Atmosphere and Ocean Workshop at the National Center for Atmospheric Research, Boulder, CO, August 15, 2012
17. "Transition to turbulence in the viscoelastic bluff body wake", Department of Applied Math Departmental Seminar, University of California Davis, Davis, CA, October 20, 2010

Posters and Presentations
